Cabo Marine Show Returns for its Third Year

Cabo San Lucas, Mexico (March 1, 2012) – New dates and an all new location on the famed Cabo San Lucas marina have been set for the returning Cabo Marine Show.

The third annual Cabo Marine Show will run from July 5-7, 2012 at IGY Marina Cabo San Lucas, docks K through M, and will be open to the general public. The event will host more than 50 local and foreign vendors and draw hundreds of additional visitors to the marina.

“We are very proud to be partnering once again with IGY Marina Cabo San Lucas in our long term vision to establish an international boat show here in Los Cabos, Mexico”, said Sergio Igartua, organizer of Cabo Marine Show. “Their participation and the support of all our sponsors are what makes this type of event possible.”

MAA+Eventos, a Mexico City based events management company has been contracted to handle all sales and logistics of the third annual Cabo Marine Show, including booth sales, registration and hotel accommodations.
